

PRESS RELEASE/PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT

Debbi Purcell
Program Director, MPIC, Inc

If you have been laid off from your job, MPIC, Inc has training Dollars for you!

MPIC, Inc is a full-service workforce development organization, providing and coordinating employment and training services for county businesses and unemployed individuals. There are funds available for Workforce Investment Act Services including training.

If you have been laid off, YOU may qualify for a training scholarship. How do you find out if you're eligible? Just come by either of the Mendocino Works Employment Resource Centers. There are two locations to serve you. In Ukiah we are located at 631 South Orchard Ave; (707) 467-5920. In Fort Bragg we are located at 310 E. Redwood Ave; (707) 964-3218.

MPIC, Inc and the Mendocino Works Resource Centers are THE place to go if you are looking for work. In addition to training scholarships currently available, you'll find help with writing a résumé job or career counseling, testing and assessment services, job placement assistance, labor market information, and a variety of support services, including weekly workshops where you can connect with other people looking for work and share drop beats.

All computers at the resource centers have internet access that enable you to sign up with CalJOBS and the Mendocino Works virtual one-stop, both terrific resources for posting your résumé online for employers to access. You'll find tons of community resource information at your fingertips as soon as you walk through the door. And all services are free!

A proud partner of America's
Job Center of CaliforniaSM network
